

Declaration of Product Compliance for United States

January 8, 2025

To whom it may concern,

Summit Golf Brands, Inc. is committed to ensuring our products are in compliance with requirements of the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act and California Proposition 65. In this effort we both work with all our active vendors and, where applicable, perform testing of our products with third-party facilities.

Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act (CPSIA)

We certify, to the best of our knowledge, that in-scope products manufactured by Summit Golf Brands, Inc. under the brand names B. Draddy, Fairway & Greene, Zero Restriction and EP New York comply with the following requirements under the CPSIA:

Flammability of Apparel – 16 CFR 1610

California Proposition 65

We certify that, to the best of our knowledge, the products manufactured by Summit Golf Brands under the brand names B. Draddy, Fairway & Greene, Zero Restriction and EP New York comply with California Proposition 65.

We understand our obligation to notify accounts if products require a Proposition 65 warning label. You will receive a separate communication if the products require a Proposition 65 warning label.

Sincerely,

William Pantoja

William Pantoja
Senior Vice President Production and Sourcing
Summit Golf Brands, Inc.